Webinar on
"Killing the Man"
September 23 2021
8 pm CEST

Affirming that society cannot be liberated without women's liberation, their freedom struggle became essential to the social revolution in Kurdistan. Encouraged by the perspectives of Öcalan, women have organised themselves autonomously in all fields of life and struggle. Hereby they challenged patriarchal mentality and structures in society and the movement. Öcalan elaborated "killing the man" as a principle of socialism, equivalent to killing power, oppression and intolerance.
