

WEBINAR SERIES 2021: ÖCALAN'S PARADIGM

Nûjîn Derya is member of the Andrea Wolf Institute of Jineolojî Academy, based in Rojava/NES. The institute aims to connect women's knowledge and struggles rooted in different parts of the world, on the base of Jineolojî. As internationalist Nûjîn lived and worked in the women's village Jinwar, where women are resisting to patriarchy and occupation by developing communal life on the base of women's liberation, ecology and democratic self-organization.

Ecology as Revolutionary Paradigm

October 24 2021
8 pm CEST

Ecology is one of the main pillars of Democratic Confederalism. Abdullah Öcalan describes ecological life as a base for the solution of global crisis. How can ecology open the way towards a holistic understanding of the relations between nature and society, love, freedom and revolutionary struggle? This talk will examine ideological foundations as well as practical examples, discussing challenges and perspectives.

Contact: womenweavingfuture@riseup.net
Youtube channel: Women Weaving Future

Network Women
Weaving the Future